Volunteer Experience

- Texas A&M HSC-COM Clinical Skills Assistant Instructor (2016): I attended weekly clinical skills classes with 1st & 2nd year medical students, and helped teach them proper physical exam techniques. I also created a review document for the musculoskeletal portion of the physical exam.
- Texas A&M HSC Disaster Day Volunteer (2015 – 2016): I volunteered as a simulated physician, and later as an advisor, during Disaster day, which is an annual event held at the Bryan campus that simulates a "disaster scenario" and allows medical, nursing, pharmacy, radiology, EMS, and physical therapy students to practice triaging patients, and working as members of a healthcare team.
- Texas A&M HSC-COM USMLE Mentors (2015): I tutored 2nd year medical students to help them prepare for the USMLE STEP 1 exam.
- Texas A&M HSC-COM Health Hullabaloo Community Health Fair (2013 – 2014): I was a Co-Chair of the advertisement and media component of this community outreach program centered on wellness, preventative medicine, health education, and health maintenance.
- Texas A&M HSC-COM Softball Team (2013 – 2014): I played shortstop on our class softball team in both the TAMU intramural league, and the Bryan/College Station city league.

- Guest speaker for the Texas A&M Pre-Medical Honor Society (2013 – 2014): I volunteered to speak to TAMU undergraduates interested in becoming physicians, and take part in a Q&A panel afterwards.
- Texas A&M HSC-COM Pediatric Interest Group (2013 – 2014): I was responsible for recruiting local well-known and respected Pediatricians to come give informational speeches to the group.
- Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity at Texas A&M University (2011 – 2012): As a Founding Father, the Community Service Chair, and the Big Event Coordinator, I joined the organization in its nascency and worked towards getting it officially chartered on campus, was a resource for volunteer opportunities for active members (and responsible for ensuring they met their community service requirements), and organized a branch of a TAMU-specific community outreach event, respectively.
- Camp Kesem (2010 – 2011): I was a lead camp counselor for this organization that fundraises throughout the school year to provide a fun, weeklong summer camp for children of parents with cancer.

Work Experience

- Clerk at the Marina at the Villages Resort in Tyler, TX (Summers of 2010 & 2011): I was responsible for a variety of tasks, including dockside work like cleaning, maintenance, rental checkouts and guided tours of pontoon boats, and working inside at the register, deli and stockroom.
- Camp Counselor at Green Acres Baptist Church Summer Camp in Tyler, TX (2009): As camp counselor with GABC, I worked weeklong day camps with children from ages 6-12.
